

To whom it may concern

Pardubice, Czech Republic, 4.10.2021

Dear Business partners,

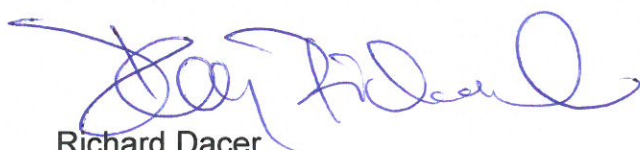

With respect to enormous grow of energy costs, increase of marked prices of key RM as well as dramatic surge of transport costs, company Synthesia is forced to modify prices on organic pigments and dyes started from November 1st again.

Synthesia will keep working on controlling own costs as well as improving of provided services hand by hand with building of safety stock of own products and strategic raw materials to help to develop future business.

If you have any specific question about this increase, please feel free and contact respective sales representative.

We appreciate your cooperation and understanding.

With kind regards

Richard Dacer
Managing director of SBU Pigments and Dyes
